WHEREAS, as provided in section 2(b), Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of Florida, and section 166.021(1), Florida Statutes, the City of Palm Bay, Florida, a municipal corporation, enjoys all governmental, corporate, and proprietary powers necessary to conduct municipal government, perform municipal functions, and render municipal services, and may exercise any power for municipal purposes, except as expressly prohibited by law; and,

WHEREAS, as provided in section 166.021(3), Florida Statutes, the governing body of each municipality in the state has the power to enact legislation concerning any subject matter upon which the state legislature may act, except when expressly prohibited by law; and,

WHEREAS, the City has experienced a proliferation of self-storage facilities with approximately sixteen (16) self-storage facilities currently operating within the City, and another six (6) proposed facilities in various stages of permitting and construction; and,

WHEREAS, less than fifteen (15%) percent of the City's total land area is zoned for commercial use; and,

WHEREAS, City's limited commercial areas results in a deficiency of vacant, non-residentially zoned land that is needed to meet the commercial demands of current and future residents resulting in residents often having to travel to neighboring municipalities for employment, goods, and services; and,

WHEREAS, the City has comprehensively evaluated and updated its comprehensive plan providing land use and population projections through 2045; and

WHEREAS, the City is currently working to amend the Land Development Code (LDC) to implement the policies and objectives of the Comprehensive Plan in accordance with section 163.3202 Florida Statutes; and,

WHEREAS, Objective FLU-1.3, City of Palm Bay Comprehensive Plan, states the City is to "promote the development of sustainable neighborhoods that provide a diverse range of housing options, are supported by public facilities, and maintain access to commercial areas for goods, services, and employment"; and,

WHEREAS, Policy FLU-1.4C, Comprehensive Plan, requires the City to “amend the LDC to encourage the development of neighborhood-scale commercial uses within, or within close proximity to, residential areas”; and

WHEREAS, Self-Storage Facilities are allowed as a Conditional Use pursuant to Section 185.088, Palm Bay Code, which requires additional review by the City Council; and,

WHEREAS, the intent of a Conditional Use is the allowance of “certain land uses, due to their unique functional characteristics and the potentiality for their incompatibility with adjoining land uses, require special consideration on an individual basis of their suitability for location and development within particular zoning districts. Such uses have been designated as conditional uses within appropriate zoning district classifications set forth in §185.030 et seq. and §185.060 et seq. It is the intent of this subchapter that such uses may be permitted in the zoning district classifications only after affirmative findings that they can be developed at particular locations in a compatible manner”; and,

WHEREAS, a temporary moratorium is a recognized important land-use planning tool to preserve the status quo during the planning process and ensure the community's problems are not exacerbated during the time it takes to formulate a regulatory scheme; and,

WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Palm Bay hereby finds that the temporary moratorium imposed by this ordinance is being imposed for a reasonable duration intended to give the City the time reasonably necessary to investigate the impacts of self-storage facilities in commercial zoning, and if necessary, to promulgate reasonable regulations relating to such uses; and,

WHEREAS, pursuant to the pending legislation doctrine set forth in Smith v. City of Clearwater, 383 So. 2d 681 (Fla. 2d DCA 1980), the City declares and implements the pending ordinance doctrine concerning zoning and development regulations governing self-storage facilities; and,
